HF Case Study proposal & resource needs - dgj - rwp 06Oct10.doc

Deb,

This is old material, but at the end of this document on HF case studies and resource requirement is a section on impacts and implications for staff and projects they are working on. This will provide you with some idea of what people were working on before we jumped into the case studies. Some of the tasks were jettisoned to give people more breathing room, but not necessarily all of the tasks. I'll be happy to answer any questions.
